an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death. an offense for which the maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in U.S.C.§3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses. A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) the offense described in linding (1). Findings Nos. (1). (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reason assure the safety of (an)other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted presumption.
